New Year’s Eve Party

Thanks to the Lifestyle Committee for another enjoyable party and a great way to ring in the New Year. We danced the night away and listened to our DJ sing some favorite old songs and a few new ones. Unfortunately, Father Time and Baby New Year couldn’t be with us this year. However, we’ll be looking for them next year. We did have a surprise visit by two other guests—the Blues Brothers. The brother on the right is the DJ. See if you can guess the brother on the left. (Hint: He’s married to one of the 2008 Co-Chairwomen of Lifestyle.)

Remember George? Our former SV general contractor has been released by Caruso and is now available for hire. See ads following page 10.

OUTREACH UPDATE

We would be remiss if we did not acknowledge the tremendous help and guidance of our retiring Treasurer, Bob Butler. Bob provided many hours of diligent work as he prepared financial reports, disbursed funds, and gave sage counsel to Outreach. He and Dorothy Hamm were instrumental in the filing for and receiving of Outreach's official 501(c) (3) not-for-profit status. Bob's cheerful demeanor and willingness to help made him a joy to work with and "big shoes" to fill. Bob Eck has volunteered to succeed Bob Butler with the monetary responsibilities of Outreach.

Two other jobs have changed hands as 2009 begins. Many thanks go out to Neighbor to Neighbor co-chairs Judy Hamm and Helen Schultz. Their tireless efforts in making sure that our community is well served by its "neighbor network" have been received and appreciated by many of our Symphony Village families. Pat Kindle, who will also step down from her duties, has assisted with making sure there have been appropriate floral offerings or donations for bereaved families. We applaud these fine women and the many comforts that have been provided under their leadership.

Eleanor Strietman will be the new chair of Neighbor to Neighbor and her position of Secretary will be filled by Pat Porter. Warm wishes are sent out to all the new appointees in their endeavors!

Look for House Tour details and ticket information soon! The House Tour is slated for April 25.

----- Loretta Quigley

Neighbor to Neighbor

Even though 2009 is well underway, the Neighbor to Neighbor Committee still has some unfinished business from 2008. First and foremost, the members of the committee want to thank retiring Co-Chairs, Judy Hamm and Helen Schultz, publicly for their outstanding leadership. Under the guidance of these two compassionate and caring women, Neighbor to Neighbor is now more uniform, coordinated, and diversified in our outreach to our Symphony Village neighbors and friends. We also thank Pat Kindle who will be "taking a break" after several years service. Pat is the lady who has arranged for and delivered flowers. Most importantly, Neighbor to Neighbor thanks everyone in Symphony Village who helped a neighbor in a time of need by preparing a meal, providing transportation, caring for a pet, etc. Truly, it is these generous and simple acts of kindness that make life in our community so pleasant.

The last piece of unfinished business is our report to the community for 2008. During the year, Neighbor to Neighbor Street Captains sent 58 cards and coordinated the preparation of 64 meals. We talked to six of our neighbors about joining the Caregivers Support Group, arranged for flowers or charitable donations for five bereavements, and spoke with four families about including their loved ones in the Symphony Village Memorial Book. We handled two requests for emergency pet care and coordinated the loan of one piece of medical equipment. Through Street Captains, 17 folks were placed on the Prayer Chain.

We begin 2009 by announcing the following changes: Eleanor Strietman is the new chairperson of the committee, and Pat Porter has agreed to replace Eleanor as the Neighbor to Neighbor secretary. We are delighted to welcome two new Street Captains: Ellen Miller (Opera Court) and Dottie Dillon (Harmony Way). Finally, we want to wish everyone in Symphony Village a very happy and healthy New Year. Let's hope it's a good year for us and for those we love!!! --- Eleanor Strietman

Volunteers In Action -- Camp New Dawn

by Brenda Stoltz

The Queen Anne's County Hospice Bereavement program is a wonderful resource for family members needing help dealing with the loss of a loved one. Since this loss is extremely difficult for a child, Hospice has set up a program designed especially for children called Camp New Dawn. For many years, girls and boys 4 to 18 years of age have gathered at a camp with their volunteer adult "Buddies" to explore and express their feelings through arts and crafts, writing, quilt making, and confidential individual as well as group discussions. This past August, the three-day program was held at Camp Pecometh in Queen Anne's County. Symphony Village residents Tom Baker, Gloria and Andy Cowley, Sandee Love, and Brenda Stoltz signed up for the training program to prepare them to be "Buddies" or "Helpers" for the 30+ children who were scheduled to attend Camp. The activities included a "Challenge Course" to instill confidence, swimming, boating, fishing, producing and performing in plays (crazy costumes included), and participating in a beautiful candlelight ceremony under the stars down by the river to honor loved ones who had died. A special closing ceremony was held outside when the parents arrived to pick up their children. It was an emotional and uplifting experience. Several Kennard Elementary School children brought butterflies they had raised at school. After a very moving speech by one of these young students, the butterflies were released into the crowd, lingered a while, and then slowly floated away. What a beautiful way to end our camp experience. I am sure all the "Buddy" volunteers would agree that they enjoyed and received as much benefit as the children from being a part of Camp New Dawn.

Who can I hire to clean and service my fireplace? See ads following page 10.

SYMPHONY SNEAKERS UPDATE

December was a busy month with our Book giveaways, Adopted Families, and food baskets. We had lots of help, and it gave us a great feeling to help others have a better holiday. January brings Muffins for Moms on Thursday-Friday, January 29-30. Please sign up to help in the Activities Book in the Clubhouse. Many of those who usually help will be away in January and February, so we desperately need help. Also, on January 21 at 6:30 p.m. Centreville Elementary School needs a few good hands to help them with their Math Extravaganza so the parents can participate with their children in math related games and projects. Please sign up for this in the Activities Book as well. For more information on these activities, contact Linda Dwyer (443-262-8371) or Sue Peterson (443-262-8335). February brings Donuts for Dads on February 19-20 and, once again, we will need help. Please look for the sign-up sheet in the Activities Book.

There will be no January meeting. If you need anything from or for Sneakers, please call Pat Verna (410-758-0262) or Karen King (443-262-9450).

Who can I get to design my patio? See ads following page 10.

CLUBS AND CLASSES

Canasta Club

Cathie Spray sent out a call to all Canasta Card players to join her for lunch at Martini’s in Easton on December 16. A hungry group of 16 women eagerly answered the call and were rewarded with a delicious meal, lovely atmosphere, and good company. When the meal, the pictures, and the chit chat were over, we all scattered in different directions. It seemed most of the women did what women do best—they went shopping.

The “Gazebo Gang” Symphony Village Garden Club

The Garden Club members planted 80 special tulip bulbs in the Gazebo Garden on December 7, —a fitting tribute to our veterans on Pearl Harbor Day! Then, on December 10, the Garden Club installed an eight-foot Christmas tree in the Gazebo. We hope you have enjoyed it. The lights were turned off on January 6, “Little Christmas.” We will be dismantling the tree on the first warm day. Duke and Shirley Clark have agreed to store the tree until next Christmas. We look forward to the tulips blooming and the return of the Purple Martins!

The Reading For Fun Book Club

The Book Club met on December 16 at the Clubhouse to discuss the book of the month, The Shack, by William P. Young. Although the book was not highly rated by the members (1.5 on a scale of 1 to 5), a very lively discussion followed. Amazon readers rated the book 3.59! Pat Loiacano provided a variety of delicious desserts. The selection for January is The House at Sugar Beach, by Helene Cooper. This book was recommended by Dorothea Turek. The meeting will be held at the Clubhouse on January 20.

For future reading, Jack recommends The Night Blooming Cereus, by Hal Wilson, a close friend of Jack's. This book was reviewed by Helen Stimson in the Star Democrat. She stated, "This is one of the best books I have had the privilege to review!" Hal has agreed to attend our February or March meeting to discuss his book and to answer Questions. All residents are invited to attend. We expect a good turn out, so please let Jack know if you would like to attend. Call Jack at 410-758-4872.

Symphony Ssingles

Come to the Clubhouse Sunday, January 25, at 1 p.m. for brunch. Meet new neighbors and old friends along with good food and interesting conversation. Sign up in the Activity Book or RSVP to Lois Winegardner (410-758-1262).

It is not too late to sign up for a cruise to Bermuda on the Norwegian Majesty leaving Baltimore Harbor May 24 and returning May 31, 2009. For information call Doris Pullman (410-758-1578).

Zumba Classes

Caryn Martin's free demonstrations in December were a great hit, and now she has started offering classes which began January 12. You can purchase a punch card good for 10 classes for $35 or you can "drop in" for $5 per class. Punch cards can be purchased from Laura at the Clubhouse. Cards expire in 3 months. Caryn needs at least 5-6 people to hold classes so please sign up early!

Class Schedule : Mondays and Wednesdays at 8 a.m., Saturdays at 3:30 p.m.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Royal Farms/Business Park Proposal

Betty McAtee and Cass Smith have put together a detailed article on the Royal Farms/Business Park proposal that would be built just north of Symphony Village and is a concern to all of us.

Go to this link: <http://villagehoa.org/documents/royalfarms.pdf>

Jim Cook, a SV resident and member of the Town of Centreville Planning Commission, also sent us an article with additional information regarding the Royal Farms/ Business Park proposal. Go to this link:

Proposed Increase in Bay Bridge Toll Fees

Mike Crosswhite has alerted us to a proposed restructuring of bridge/tunnel toll fees in Maryland.

Town of Centreville Up-Coming Elections

As many of you know, Symphony Village residents represent the single biggest voting bloc in the history of Centreville—larger than the total votes cast in any single election during the past five years. Early on, we held “forums” in the Clubhouse where those with political aspirations came before us and answered numerous questions concerning current as well as future problems. Questions were submitted, reviewed, and placed in an order of importance. The Centreville government is growing rapidly. It has amassed an aggressive agenda to present to the residents this coming election. Those seeking office are ready to present their views. Do you have questions and concerns? Do you wish to hear from those running for office? If so, please contact me, Ed Novack. I would be happy to act as a liaison. My email address is vjn@spsi.net . My home phone is 410-758-2842.

Resident Referral Program

We are proud to announce Joan and Bob Butler of 251 Concerto Avenue are the winners of a $100 gift certificate to Annie’s Paramount Steak and Seafood House for participating in the RRP contest. Caruso Homes and the Symphony Village team would like to thank all who participated. The resident who sends the most referrals between January 11 and February 10 will receive a $100 gift certificate to Martini’s Restaurant in Easton. If you have any questions or need more referral cards, please stop by the Sales Center.

Good Luck from Matt Pavlick ( mpavlick@symphonyvillage.com ) .

QUASI TRAVEL ARTICLE OF THE MONTH
Second Annual “I’ve Ridden My Bicycle Everyday This Year” Ride

By George Drake

Sixteen anxious and brave cyclists met at the Clubhouse at 10:30 a.m. on January 1 for the first cycling ride of the year. The temperature was below freezing and the winds were high. Undaunted riders, dressed in layers as abominable snowpersons, the cyclists traveled off for laps around the perimeter of Symphony Village. There were cold noses and cheeks, cold fingertips, and gulps of cold air. Almost everyone rode at least two laps (4.4 miles). Three brave, diehard riders rode an extra loop for bragging rights. The ride ended at the Clubhouse where Nancy Cameron served hot chocolate, sandwiches, cookies, and assorted goodies for the riders to restock those burned calories. A lot of laughter came through as our faces thawed out. Some people even said they could not make the ride but wanted to know, “What time is the hot chocolate being served?” The frozen but happy riders were: Pat Scheirer, Dot Abbott, Royce and Amy Holm, Steve Quigley, Lloyd and Betty McAtee, George and Mary Drake, Don Cameron, Tom Baker, Cyndy Bourke, Dave and Sue Peterson, Caryn Martin, and Mary Ciesielski.
