SV Energy Cost Comparison

Bob Offerman has written two very valuable articles:

" Winter Energy Saving Tips" and "Winter Energy Cost Comparison"

Here are two excerpts from the second article:

"Heat Pump with Propane Backup. The bottom line is that, although it takes longer for the heat pump to provide the same amount of heat as the propane furnace, the operating cost is half or less than using the propane furnace."

"Heat Pump with Electric Backup. The bottom line is that, although it takes longer for the heat pump to provide the same amount of heat as the electric auxiliary heat, the operating cost is about half as much as using the electric backup."

OUTREACH UPDATE

Card and Game Party

Outreach Committee would like to thank, once again, the residents of Symphony Village for supporting the Second Annual Card and Game Party. It was a wonderful success! Not only did we have our Village women playing their favorite card games, we also had quite a few Village men playing. In addition, we had participants from Kent Island and Prospect Bay. Lauren Rose and Carlene Cooke headed up the Card and Game part of the event. Nancie Cameron and Allen Beck were in charge of catering, providing coffee, tea, and a variety of tasty snacks in the morning and a delicious lunch at noon. All this was accompanied by BJ McClaeb's delightful piano music. It was a fun, fun day! Thanks again for everyone's support.

Rebuilding Together

Thanks to all who have offered to help with the Rebuilding Together project; it isn't too late to sign up if you'd like to help on April 30. I will send out specific details to the helpers once I get that information. However, I do know that it is a house in Centreville; and there may be work days other than April 30.— Carlene Cooke, Chair, Outreach Committee

Neighbor to Neighbor

As happens at the beginning of every year, Neighbor to Neighbor has some old business to report. The past year was very busy. Our Street Captains sent a total of 139 cards to neighbors offering everything from get well wishes and sympathy to congratulations for big and little joys. The captains coordinated the preparation and delivery of 152 meals and provided an aggregate total of at least 235 instances of pet care. Captains visited neighbors 36 times and provided general assistance a total of 45 times. They arranged shopping 28 times and processed two requests for the loan of medical equipment. We suggested that one resident consider joining the Caregivers' Support Group and passed along 41 Prayer Chain requests. We made eight donations to various charities in memory of residents and entered pages into the Memorial Book in memory of two residents.

Yes, it was a very busy year, but that is old business. Now, we are looking forward to the challenges and joys of 2011. – Eleanor Strietman, Chair, Neighbor to Neighbor

Service Project: Adult Day Medical Center

The Adult Day Medical Center at the Percy Thomas Center in Stevensville provides nursing care, social services, therapeutic recreation, meals, and transportation to medically fragile persons over the age of 16. The Queen Anne's County Department of Health is the sponsor. The Center is always in need of donations – not only monetary but also tangible. To this end, Outreach will collect items from April 9 – 17 that will then be donated to the Center on April 18.

The complete Wish List is posted in the Activities Book at the Clubhouse and will be published in the March Libretto. A sampling of the requested items:

Craft Supplies: ribbon, lace, fabric, etc. Items for Prizes: travel-sized toiletries, nail polish, combs, etc. Miscellaneous: books, wrapping paper, stuffed animals, movies, etc.

Collection houses will be announced in March. If you have any questions, please contact

Linda Blume, 410-758-3194.

What's Your Favorite Recipe(s)?

Plans are underway for Volume 2 of The Village Cookbook, to be launched in time for the 2nd Annual Artisan's Fair later this year and/or the 2011 Holiday season. Pick up recipe collection sheets from the basket at the front desk at the Clubhouse and use them along with additional pages as needed to contribute a recipe. For the security and propriety of your recipe(s), place your recipe(s) in a sealed envelope marked "SVOPI RECIPE" and drop it at the front desk at the Clubhouse where Nancie Cameron will pick them up every couple of days. Recipe categories are:

Appetizers	Vegetarian Entrees
Beverages	Main Dishes (non-seafood)
Bunch, Bread, and Rolls	Seafood
Soups and Salads	Desserts
Vegetables and Side Dishes	Cookies, Bars, and Candy

Be sure to indicate the category on the collection sheet. The deadline for recipe collection is April 30. That date may seem a long way off; but please don't procrastinate, "git 'er done now!" Anyone willing to enter the recipes on-line in the Morris Cookbook program, please call Nancie Cameron, 410-758-3948. An instructional meeting will be held in March.

Lost Pets

The P & C Committee would like to recommend that you email a picture of your pet to John Schultz at schultzy@schultzy.org to put in the Pet Directory. When someone finds a cat or dog, they can check the Directory and call you to see if you have a missing pet. Some pets do look alike, so it might be necessary to call more than one person. Hopefully a reunion can be arranged. If you don't have email, take your picture to Gil Hoffman or Carol Hodges to be scanned.

Directory

If you are using a hard copy of the Residents' Directory, check the date at the top. It might be necessary to print a new copy. Residents often change their emails and phone numbers.

3. What television show debuted in the 1950s that presented the best selling songs of the week?

CLUBS and CLASSES

BIRD CLUB

Symphony Village Bird Club

The Bird Club journeyed to Pickering Creek Audubon Center on January 23 to attend a Walk 'n Talk presentation "Owls." Before the talk began, we identified birds at the Center's bird feeders: American goldfinches, dark-eyed juncos, titmice, white throated sparrows, red-breasted nuthatches, and red- belied woodpeckers. We then learned fascinating facts about owls in general, focusing on the four species in this area year round (barred owl (left), barn owl, Eastern screech owl (below), and great horned owl). Also discussed were the four species that visit in the winter (snowy owl, long-eared owl, short-eared owl, and saw whet owl). Do you know why owls have feathers on their legs down to their talons? It is for protection when prey such as rodents with sharp little teeth and slithering snakes try to "fight back" when caught. Following the talk and a short walk to observe habitat, we went to the Classroom where we dissected owl pellets – the SV group was thrilled to positively identify rodent hip bones, ribs, vertebrae, teeth, and even partial skulls. The Walk 'n Talk series ends on March 13 with "Ducks." If you'd like to attend with the Bird Club, please sign up in the Activities Book by March 9. – Linda Blume

BOWLING

The Yahoo Calendar says, "Bowling Tuesdays 12:15." Where have you been? Did you know that for $5 you can get shoes, bowl two games, and dine on pizza and a soda? No to pizza? Then try a hotdog. I've heard on good authority that you don't even have to clear your place after lunch. (A SV Merry Maid is on duty.) So now the only thing to fear is the game itself. Ten duckpins, three balls, and gutter guards. How can you miss? But better not ask anyone that. Clearing deadwood even seems to be optional. Meet in the parking lot Tuesday for a ride. Once the "people vs.cars" is sorted out, it's on to Chestertown for one more sorting—this time it's "people vs. alleys." Once the bowlers are on their lanes, the rest is easy. Scores last week ranged from 78 to 118; so you see proficiency comes in varying sizes. Oh, I almost forgot to tell you, besides being a bargain, it's a lot of fun! – Pat Scheirer

DINING IN

For Your Dining Pleasure

Most countries and cultures have a popular word or phrase to describe a "coming together" over food. The Italians often use the term "asseieme." The French expect at least two hours of conversation with dinner. The Spanish linger over a late lunch or dinner. Many others simply express the experience as "slow food." It's an opportunity to eat delicious food in an unhurried, relaxed manner. Everywhere people are sitting down and enjoying home-cooked meals with friends, neighbors, and new acquaintances.

Hopefully, the following information will dispel a few misconceptions regarding a regular Symphony Village activity called DINING IN...

FALSE

It's only for couples. It's for people who enjoy preparing and eating gourmet or specialized ethnic foods. A host's home must accommodate up to 10 people at one dining table. A host sets an elegant table with beautiful linens, china, and crystal. A host provides all beverages, including a variety of alcoholic options.

TRUE

It's for all residents. Think of it as an extended happy hour event! Good food knows no bounds. Ever watch the Food Network shows? A host's home can be any size and configuration. Common sense dictates seating. A buffet with random seating or multiple tables are as appropriate as one table. A host prepares an entrée and coordinates the menu with invited guests. All guests are encouraged to bring a beverage of choice.

It's an opportunity to have a great meal and a fun time – often within walking distance. Past events have encompassed a range of entrees: roast turkey, one-dish chicken, baked fish, paella, lasagna, beef stroganoff, and hearty bowls of chili. In 2011, it could be a retro menu or finger foods served up on beach blankets!

The next Dining In event is February 20! Sign up closes February 15.

Please view the Activities Book in the Clubhouse. Routinely, this activity is scheduled the third weekend of every month (Saturday or Sunday – for brunch, lunch, or dinner). Questions and comments are always welcome. For more information, phone one of the Co-coordinators: Sandee Love (410-758-3224) or Willie DiLaura (443-262-8062).

GAZEBO GARDEN CLUB

There is not much activity this time of year. A few daffodils have poked their heads above the ground. Like us gardeners, they cannot wait for spring! By the time our next report comes out, the forsythia will be blooming. As soon as the ground thaws, we will install a fourth purple martin house near the East Pond between Encore and Overture. This installation has been approved and paid for.

We still need five individuals or teams to volunteer as caretakers for the five unsubscribed beds. Contact Jack Hennessey at 410-758-4872 to volunteer. Or better yet, send me an email: jhennessey@atlanticbb.net, 'cause I can't remember _____! Caruso has been requested to provide two loads of mulch for the Gazebo Garden. We do have volunteers to spread the mulch. Hallelujah! See you around St. Patrick's Day! – Jack Hennessey

READING FOR FUN BOOK CLUB

At the January 18 meeting, we discussed the book, Olive Kitteridge, by Elizabeth Strout. This book was recommended by Carol Korstjens. On a scale of 1 to 10, the rating was 7.0. In spite of this nominal rating, this book provided more animated discussion than most of the books we have read. Carol provided a delicious cheesecake and coffee for dessert.

Our book for the February 15 meeting is The Space Between Us by Thrity Umrigar, recommended by June Silverman. The setting for this book is India, wherein the dominance of the male in their culture is gradually changing. It is a quick read and quickly grabs the reader's interest. By chapter 15 (out of 25), it is difficult to put the book down.

The group has decided to purchase one copy of each selected book in advance. Once that copy is reviewed by club members, it will be placed in a separate section of the Clubhouse Library with access to all residents. For that purpose, each member is requested to donate one dollar at each meeting for the purchase of these books. Our primary source for books will still be the Centreville Library, which provides excellent service in obtaining books.

Several members of the Book Club have assisted in culling older books from the Library to make room for newer books which continue to be collected by members. This has been necessary due to limited shelf space in the Clubhouse.

SSINGLES CLUB

Symphony SSingles Pot Luck Lunch

SV SSingles met on February 13 for a fabulous pot luck lunch at the Clubhouse. If you weren't there, you missed scrumptious shrimp and crab casserole, creamy chicken and asparagus tortellini, Mexican meatloaf, a tasty turkey roast, Breakfast Braid (a perennial hit), mini ham/Swiss and turkey/Swiss sandwiches, two sets of individualized and fantastic deviled eggs, a yummy pineapple and cranberry Jello salad, extra special macaroni and cheese, wonderful coleslaw, authentic Waldorf salad, rolls and butter, and for dessert: luscious Red Velvet Valentine cupcakes, scrumptious raspberry bars, delicious chocolate Bundt cake, delicate cream cheese-filled flaky pastry, and cream puffs to die for.

Coming: A SSingles outing is being planned for spring – watch future Librettos and the Activities Book for forthcoming details. All SV singles are invited to all SSingles events. – Linda Blume

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

Words cannot express the gratitude we feel for the support we have received during my open-heart surgery and recovery this past month. Thank you for your prayers, food, flowers, cards—did I mention food, calls, lunch buddies, dog walkers (Harry knows who you are!), and the coordinators for all of the above. We live in a GREAT neighborhood and are thankful to have each of you in our lives. The doctors have said that they are extremely pleased with my progress, and I will start cardiac rehab in the coming weeks. Again, thank you for everything!

Love, Roberta and Nazir Ahmed

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

We greatly appreciated the many expressions of sympathy received from the neighbors in our recent bereavement in the loss of my wife. Kind words mean so much at such a time, and I thank all of you for the special support.

Thanks also for the friendship you have shown over the years to Jean and myself. – Lee Gauthier

PET POLICY: RESOLUTION 2011-12

Whereas the Board of Directors of Symphony Village at Centreville Homeowners Association, Inc., recognizes the need for precluding pets from defecating and/or urinating on SV homeowners' private property, the following policy is hereby established:

The owner or custodian of an animal may not allow his or her animal or any animal under his or her control to urinate or defecate on the property of another without the consent of the owner of the property. In order to help pet owners in SV comply with the contents of Queen Anne County Animal Control Article III, 9-21(a), the SV HOA requests that pet owners have their pets urinate or defecate on their own property. As such, the owner must not allow the pets to urinate or defecate on the private property of other SV homeowners. To help the pet owners comply with this requirement, the pet may urinate or defecate on any SV common and/or HOA maintained property. Property maintained by the HOA is defined as the property between the sidewalk and the street, sometimes referred to as the easement. Any defecation that occurs on common property or HOA-maintained property must be cleaned up by the owner of the pet and disposed of at the home of the pet owner.

Under no circumstance are feces to be deposited in the trash cans surrounding the Clubhouse or in the Clubhouse trash dumpster. These are for trash only. Any pet owner or custodian (1) observed allowing a pet to urinate or defecate on private property, (2) observed not picking up feces, or (3) observed depositing feces in the Clubhouse trash can or dumpster may be subject to a penalty IAW Article III, 9-21 (a) of the Queen Anne's County Animal Control. For reporting purposes: telephone number - 410-758-2393; address - 201 Clay Dr. Queenstown, MD 21658. Voted and approved by The Board of Directors on January 28, 2011.

HELPFUL HINTS

CLEANING TIPS

Pat Scheirer showed me her shower stall that now has a shower curtain just inside the door. This prevents the water from hitting the shower door, hence no need to clean the shower door. To accommodate the seat, she cut a piece out of the curtain. The curtain was hung on a tension rod which expands to the appropriate length. She copied this idea from Carol Powell.

Willie DiLaura also shared a tip for her shower door. She uses the cooktop cleaner from the kitchen. It requires some elbow grease, but it works.

COMPUTER TIPS

Many times a user may want to print out what they see on the screen. One of the ways that is open to Windows users is the PRINT SCREEN key on your keyboard. To print the screen, follow these steps:

- Press the PRINT SCREEN key.
- Open a blank document using your favorite word processing program.
- Type CTRL V and the snapshot of your screen will appear.
- Print out the document and a copy of the screen is available.

If you wish to email the snapshot, type CTRL V in the email message, and the picture will appear.

TRAVEL

PHOENIX, ARIZONA Part Two Of Our Trip West

By Karin Larsen

Did you know that the city of Phoenix, Arizona, has the largest land area of any city in the U.S.? Located in the Salt River Valley or Valley of the Sun, beauty surrounds this city with the McDowell Mountains (Northeast), the White Tank Mountains (West), Superstition Mountains (East), and the Sierra Estrella Mountains (Southwest). Getting around this bustling city was pretty easy from our foothills location in the Southeast portion of Phoenix.

We enjoyed downtown Scottsdale for its entertainment and shopping and downtown Phoenix's Biltmore area for its fabulous museums, shopping, and restaurants. One day we stopped by the Heard Museum to see beautiful artifacts, Southwestern history, and journey through cultures of the Native Americans and Hispanics. Another day we joined our friends from Colorado and energized our senses at The Phoenix Art Museum's interesting collections of American, Western American, modern, and contemporary art. Mary and I branched off to see American and European garments, shoes, and accessories from the 18th century to the present, led by major designers such as Balenciaga, Chanel, Dior, Yves Saint Laurent, Emilio Pucci, and Ralph Rucci. Later, while exploring one of the museum's four levels, we couldn't resist making real Indian dolls in the children's hands-on and brains-on gallery!

Two of our favorite jaunts had to be the Desert Botanical Garden and Frank Lloyd Wright's Taliesin West. First, the Desert Botanical Garden sits on 145 acres and has more than 50,000 plants on display with five thematic trails that exhibit cactus and succulent species from around the world. Interpretive exhibits along the trails highlight desert wildflowers and types of conservation and desert plant adaptation. Our favorite was following the brick path Desert Discovery Loop Trail to see the array of cacti and succulents from around the world. Wow, those saguaro cacti are huge! Goodbye cacti, hello to touring Frank Lloyd Wright's Taliesin West. Mr. Wright seems to be guiding us and his students, busy studying at this location, while proudly showing off his ingenious architectural designs and living legacy. Also of note, Phoenix's restaurant scene shines; but our top choice was the cowboy themed, beef lover's delight, Rustler's Rooste, perched high above Southeast Phoenix. So Villagers, if you visit Phoenix, take a walk around the cityscape, amongst Phoenix's 15 urban villages! We'd all enjoy a walk through this "Valley of the Sun," especially during snowy months!

RESTAURANT REVIEW

QUEENSTOWN PIZZERIA

Imagine transporting your taste buds to a restaurant 10 minutes from SV that will serve you enjoyable, authentically Southern Italian food free from the hustle and bustle of New York or Italy! Resident Suzy Wishard brought me to Queenstown Pizzeria, one of her favorites, and now I'm a fan and so is Bruce!

Dominique Zappulo, from Caserta, Italy, 40 kilometers from Naples, opened his Queenstown pizzeria in November 2009. What makes this restaurant spark is Mr. Zappulo's recipes, which are made with the freshest ingredients in the southern Italian style. Queenstown Pizzeria thrives because the dishes are prepared using rich sauces, fragrantly fresh olive oil-infused pizza crusts, homemade pastas, and imported cheeses, all cooked with recipes passed from southern Italy to Queenstown Pizzeria's customers!

Returning one evening for dinner, we liked the fresh and friendly atmosphere with bright Tuscany colors. Spacious and clean came right to mind. Joining forces, we shared and sampled delicious pizza and pasta. Bruce compared Queenstown's traditional anchovy pizza to his favorite New York pizza eaten when growing up in Bensonhurst (a Mecca of some of the best Italian eateries of Brooklyn, New York). My own current favorites are the Queenstown Deluxe Pizza, the Baked Gnocchi in a vodka sauce (you can choose the sauce), and the Fettuccini Alfredo with Shrimp. These choices are scrumptious, but their classic menu also features parmigiana dinners, Stromboli, calzone, and a wide variety of subs and sandwiches. Freshly baked Tiramisu, cannoli, and cheesecake called out to us, but we'll have to try those next time!

Queenstown Pizzeria will make you feel as if you are eating in the boot of Italy near Naples or Pompeii, but really, you're in Queenstown, Maryland!

Queenstown Pizzeria is located at 7104 Main Street on Rt.18 in Queenstown, MD. (410-827-4221). The hours are Monday thru Thursday 11 a.m.—9 p.m., Friday & Saturday 11 a.m.—9:30 p.m., and Sunday noon—8 p.m.

RECIPE

CHEDDAR-ALE SOUP

From the Kitchen of Bea Trotta

2 T unsalted butter
1 yellow onion, diced
2 each med. carrots and celery, diced
½ tsp garlic powder or 1 minced garlic clove
½ cup all-purpose flour
1 cup pale ale
1 T Worcestershire sauce

2 cups low-fat milk
2 cups vegetable broth (preferably low-sodium)
1¼ lb. sharp cheddar cheese, shredded
Dash of pepper to taste
Lightly seasoned croutons for garnish
Olive oil for drizzling (optional)

• Melt 2 T butter in a 4-5 qt. pot over medium heat. Add onion, carrots, and celery. Cover and cook 20 minutes, stirring occasionally.

By Karin Larsen

- Add garlic. Cook 1 minute. Add flour. Cook 2-3 minutes, stirring occasionally.
- Add ale. Cook 2-3 minutes, stirring constantly.
- Add Worcestershire, milk, and vegetable broth. Bring to a simmer over medium-high heat. Do not bring to a boil. Reduce heat to medium-low. Simmer 10-12 minutes.
- Remove from heat and puree with immersion blender.
- Return pot to medium-low heat. Add cheese by handfuls, stirring constantly until cheese melts. Do not boil.
- Season with pepper and then ladle soup into bowls. Garnish with croutons; and drizzle very lightly with olive oil, if desired. Serves 6.
